

February 28, 2007

We had Chip Eichelberger speak at our Global Sales Meeting in Chattanooga, TN and he was the highlight of our meeting. Chip's message touched many people and actually will cause individuals to change their lives. The research he completed prior to presenting to understand his audience was a first for me. The energy throughout his presentation generated a new level of enthusiasm that remained throughout the meeting. His presentation is not just for sales and marketing but reaches any employee in an organization.

The importance of having a quality speaker makes a difference in the success of any meeting. Chip Eichelberger is a difference maker. I would highly recommend Chip for any function where energy and excitement is the key. Chip's presentation will help you "Gain the Edge".

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Tom Eggleston". The signature is written in a cursive style and is positioned above the printed name.

Tom Eggleston